Welcome Address

With the rest of the world we watched in disbelief as the corona virus pandemic took hold and changed life as we knew it. Whatsoever, the silver lining amidst the dark clouds was a digital revolution that emerged in a big way. Rapid digitalization has changed the current dynamics of the business world. In contemporary business practices, the strategic focus is on use of new digital technologies to automate & streamline business practices for data-driven decision making. One of the most significant impacts of technology has been the introduction of Artificial Intelligence (AI) & Automation, which will continue to disrupt business practices. Adaptability is the only key to survival in the current digital era. Hence, leading in uncertain times & decision-making under dynamic conditions has become the new norm for managers today. Those who can adapt to the organizational goals in-line with the changing times can unlock the door to great opportunities ahead.

In view of this, amidst the current uncertainty is a strong undercurrent of hope. There is going to be a significant rise in demand for management graduates who can imbibe new-age technological skills along with a strong grip over the core management skills. On the brighter side, despite the pandemic induced slump and recovery, there has been a surge in demand for management graduates from consulting, analytics and tech companies, which continued their recruitment drive. Hence, future managers need to be groomed in a way that they can meet the current challenges while maintaining the speed of the transformation process.

IMIS has been in the vanguard of management education since 1995. The institute has consistently been addressing the issues of employability of management graduates in challenging times. Our excellent industry-academic interface has made it possible to produce industry ready professionals to deliver desirable results right from the time of entry into the corporate world. New-age skill building by industry experts, involvement of corporate leaders in designing the curriculum, business analytics, IT management, case-based learning and field projects by corporate houses are some of the major initiatives taken in this direction.

The class of 2025 is all set to enter into the corporate world. In the past, we had enjoyed the full support of our esteemed recruiters in finding opportunities for the right talents. We are confident that our talents of this batch would meet the expectations of all the prospective employers.

With this hopeful note, we welcome all the esteemed employers to visit the IMIS campus for a pre-placement interaction and for sourcing the right talents through participation in our Campus Recruitment Program (CRP) 2025.

Wishing a successful campus hiring!

Prof. (Dr.) Usha Kamilla
Director

An Invitation

The paradigm shift in campus placements is more than evident from the recruitment landscape in the current scenario. To address the challenges, we have embarked upon an ambitious path to overcome any obstacle on its way for achieving our placement objectives.

Our initiatives envisage rolling out multiple action plans which include hybrid learning to hybrid recruitment process to hybrid workplace management techniques for the industry ready professionals we nurture.

This has been made possible by blending technology with learning solutions and adopting appropriate placement strategies to stay relevant and refreshed in the demanding market conditions.

The focus is on career assessment in order to align students' strengths and interests with the learning curriculum leading to identification of career needs and developing a clear career vision.

Our assessment and development center serves to translate this vision into reality by equipping our students with much needed capabilities.

We are sure, your valuable guidance and trust would keep us on the right path for achieving mutually satisfying and beneficial relationship in harnessing the hidden potential of our talents.

While gearing up for the ensuing Campus Recruitment Program 2025, we extend our warm invitation to all the corporate houses to visit our campus for their talent requirements in diverse roles and disciplines.

In & around Bhubaneswar

The history of the city dates back to over 2000 years. The city was ancient capital of Kalinga. Bhubaneswar is known as the 'city of temples', named after Tribhuvaneshwar, 'Lord of Three Worlds', still preserves over 500 of India's finest temples, around which the religious life of the city revolves.

Mythological references and the epigraphic sources describe the area as Ekamra Kshetra and Saiva Pitha. In 1936, the Odisha (Orissa) became a separate province with Cuttack as its Capital, which was eventually changed to Bhubaneswar in 1956.

Together with Puri and Konark, Bhubaneswar forms the 'golden triangle'--one of the most visited destinations in East India, for its proud possession of magnificent sculpture and majestic architectural heritage.

The B-School that Thinks Ahead...

IMIS believes in imagination. What it cannot see is infinitely more important than what it can see. There are two big forces: external and internal. We have very little control over external forces such as tornadoes, earthquakes, floods, disasters, illness and pain. What really matters is the internal force. How do we respond to those? Looking for answers to this is what we call at IMIS "thinking." As long as we are thinking, we are ahead. The moment we stop, we know that it is the end of the road. We have realized: "Nothing can stop a man with the right mental attitude from achieving his goal."

Such realization has come from the three simple but powerful words:
Discipline - Leadership - Commitment.
